Your AWANA Leaders

This year has taken a toll on all of us and has forced us to change the way we do almost everything, including how we have met for worship. We have learned to attend church online in the comfort of our homes. We have learned to sit in our cars and listen to God's Word via radio. And due to your faithfulness in giving, we have learned to truly make our FLC a true multipurpose building. Thank you for your patience and your faithfulness.

After much prayer and discussion, the deacons and I feel that it is time to begin returning to our other buildings. And, as the State has done with business, we believe the best way to do this is in phases.

Here is our plan: Today, September 6th, we will return to our sanctuary for worship at 10:30 am in much the same way we have worshipped in our FLC. Our sanctuary will have limited seating to allow for social distancing. Online and parking lot church will still be available.

On Sunday, September 20th, we will reboot our Sunday School, Children's Church and Nursery. Sunday School will begin at a new time, 9:30 a.m. to allow us to keep our 10:30 a.m. worship time. If all goes well with this reopening, we will look to begin AWANA and our Wednesday activities in October.

To make this reboot successful, it is important that each of us do all we can to protect those most vulnerable to this disease. If you are sick at all, please stay home and take advantage of online church. Wash your hands frequently and take advantage of the hand sanitizer that is available throughout the building. If you are able, wear a face covering when close to others.

Thank you for your faithfulness and your cooperation.

Message

"Peace in the Chaos"

Luke 21:5-38

⁵Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was ^[a]adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said, ⁶"These things which you see—the days will come in which not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down." ⁷So they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?" ⁸And He said: "Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' ^[b]Therefore do not ^[c]go after them. ⁹But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately." ¹⁰Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake. ¹³But it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. ¹⁴Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will ^[d]answer; ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or ^[e]resist. ¹⁶You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head shall be lost. ¹⁹By your patience possess your souls. ²⁰"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. ²¹Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those who are in the midst of her depart, and let not those who are in the country enter her. ²²For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. ²³But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. ²⁴And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. ²⁵"And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; ²⁶men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near." ²⁹Then He spoke to them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰When they are already budding, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. ³¹So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all things take place. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away. ³⁴"But take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with ^[f]carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that Day come on you unexpectedly. ³⁵For it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶Watch therefore, and pray always that you may ^[g]be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." ³⁷And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet. ³⁸Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.
