Dear Family of God of Philadelphia,

As I write this article the folks in Tennessee are recovering from record flooding; people in Haiti are digging out from an earthquake; there is a huge humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan; the COVID pandemic has once again reared its ugly head; and our church family is grieving the loss of two of our most precious members. It is a difficult, almost overwhelming, time.

So, as people of faith, what do we do in times like these? How are we to respond in the face of such tragedy and devastation? We all want to help. We all want to do something, but the needs are just so great.

For the answer to these questions, I want to draw your attention to a parable that Jesus told in Luke 10:29-37. We know it as the "Parable of the Good Samaritan."

In this story, a man was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho when he is robbed, beaten, and left to die. Two people from the church come by, see the hurting man, but pass by on the other side. Finally, the Samaritan comes by. He sees the man and takes the necessary action to save his life. This man does two very important things that you and I need to do during these days.

First of all, the Samaritan saw the need and had compassion. Many today have decided not to see the needs. They have stopped watching the news. They have shut themselves up in their homes and are praying that all the problems will eventually go away. We must at least give some credit to the first two men who came by. They at least saw the need. But when they walked away, and the hurting man was no better off. When the Samaritan saw the man, "he had compassion." That means he not only saw the need but was moved to help. He understood "that a need seen is an assignment given." When we see someone hurting, it should move us to action.

Secondly, the Samaritan did what he could with the resources he had. I can't replace the homes that were destroyed in the Tennessee floods, but I can contribute to the North Carolina Missions Offering to send some relief to those who were affected. I can't cure all the problems in Haiti or Afghanistan, but I can give to organizations who are "on the ground" trying to help, and I can pray for God to intervene in the hearts of the government officials there. I can't take away the grief from the families in our church who are grieving, but I can walk with them through their grief. I can send a card or a text. I can prepare a meal or run an errand for them. We all can do something to help.

Finally, it is also important to remember that God is still in control of all things. He has not given up HIS throne to anyone. Trust in HIM for comfort and help.

May our Father bless you today. It is a joy to serve our Lord with you. RCA

Week OF Prayer

FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA
MISSIONS OFFERING
AUG. 29 TO SEPT. 5, 2021

The month of September marks the primary emphasis for the North Carolina Missions Offering. Please join in a special prayer emphasis for NCMO and ministries it supports in the week leading into September. Following are some suggested daily prayer points for individuals and churches. . . .

SUNDAY, AUGUST 29 Baptist on Mission

Pray for the leadership of Baptists on Mission and the 19 different ministries they support. Ask God to use these ministries and everyone involved in them to take the gospel to people in need and make disciples of Jesus Christ.

MON., AUGUST 30 Church Planting Pastors

Pray for church planters, and ask the Father to draw many people to Jesus through new churches across North Carolina. Pray that God would raise up more church planters across our state.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 31 Disaster Relief

Thank the Lord for the work of disaster relief volunteers, and pray for them as they show and share Jesus' love with people in need.

WED., SEPT. 1 Mission Camps

Pray for the directors and volunteers of the mission camps in Red Springs and Shelby as they share the good news of Jesus by serving local residents of these communities.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 2 Church Planting Consultants

Pray for church planting consultants with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina who help recruit, train and encourage church planters across our state.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 3 Baptist Associations

Pray for the local Baptist associations that work with local congregations to reach their communities for Christ by strengthening churches, sharing the gospel and making disciples.

SAT., SEPT. 4 Medical/Dental/Health Ministry

Thank God for the medical professionals, pastors and counselors who volunteer their time to bring physical and spiritual help to hurting people. Pray that patients will meet Jesus and know His love.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 5 Church Planting Among NC's International Population

Pray for church planters and churches that will be planting churches across the state to reach the increasingly diverse population of North Carolina.
