Dear Family of God of Philadelphia,

I love children. They are such a precious gift from God. As a church, we should love them, teach them, lead them, and learn from them. For my article this month, I thought we would just celebrate the some of the wonderful things children have taught us. (I also thought you could use a good laugh.)

The following is from an article in my files written by a mother in Austin, Texas. It is entitled, “Things I’ve learned from my children (Honest & No Kidding)”

1. If you spray hair spray on dust bunnies and run over them with Roller blades, they can ignite.
2. A 3-year-old’s voice is louder than 200 adults in a crowded restaurant.
3. If you hook a dog leash over a ceiling fan, the motor is not strong enough to rotate a 42-pound boy wearing Batman underwear and a Superman cape. It is strong enough; however, if tied to a paint can, to spread paint on all four walls of a 20 X 20 room.
4. You should not throw baseballs up when the ceiling fan is on. When using a ceiling fan as a bat, you have to throw the ball up a few times before you get a hit. A ceiling fan can hit a baseball a long way. The glass in windows doesn’t stop a baseball hit by a ceiling fan.
5. When you hear the toilet flush and the words “uh oh”, it is already too late.
6. Brake fluid mixed with Clorox makes smoke, and lots of it.
7. Play dough and microwave should not be used in the same sentence.
8. No matter how much Jell-O you put in a swimming pool you still can’t walk on water. Pool filters do not like Jell-O.
9. Always look in the oven before you turn it on; plastic toys do not like ovens.
10. The spin cycle on the washing machine does not make earthworms dizzy. It will, however, make cats dizzy. Cats throw up twice their body weight when dizzy.
11. You probably do not want to know what that odor is.
12. 80% of men who read this will try mixing the Clorox and brake fluid.

I hope this gave you a smile today. Please plan to help us on our “Trunk or Treat” night as we bring some joy to the lives of precious children in our community.

May our Father bless you today. It is a joy to serve our Lord with you.
