Dear Family of God of Philadelphia,

There is an old story about a man who was somehow able to join the Emperor of China's orchestra, even though he could not play a note. Whenever the orchestra played, he would hold his flute against his lips, not daring even to blow softly, for fear he might cause discord. For his membership in the orchestra, he received a modest salary and was able to live comfortably.

However, one day, the emperor decided that he wanted to hear each musician play a solo for him. The flautist became desperate. He tried to take quick professional lessons, but to no avail. It seems this man had no natural ability and no ear for music. He pretended to be sick, but the Royal Physician who attended him knew better, and reported to the emperor, that he was indeed well enough to play.

On the day appointed for his solo appearance, the debunked musician took poison, and died because he was "unwilling to face the music."

The New Year always gives us a chance to "face the music" in our lives. It is a time when we reflect on the prior year to see those things we did well, and those things that need improvement. It is a time for us to look back at our calendar from the year before and see how we invested our time. It is a time for us to look back at our bank account and see how we invested our resources. It is a time for us to look at our faith to see if we have grown or if we have lost ground in our spiritual lives.

But rather than “drinking in the poison of complacency,” let’s commit ourselves to doing better. Let’s commit to making sure we make the best of the time we have been given. Let’s invest our resources in those things that are eternal. And let’s make this the greatest year of spiritual growth we have ever experienced.

These things will not happen by accident. We must be intentional. Block off time on your calendar to spend with family. Make sure that each month, the first investment you make is in the Kingdom of God. Have a daily Bible reading and prayer time. And make sure that you make attending church services your highest priority.

“Face the music”, we are the instruments of God. Let’s all “make beautiful music” for our King this year.

May our Father bless you today. It is a joy to serve our Lord with you. RCA

75 PLUS News

This was our last meeting of 2022. It reminded us how fast life is. A good saying “Happiness looks for no one; we must find it for ourselves.” Our meetings brought a lot of smiles and joy.

We missed a lot of people because of sickness and appointments. We had a surprise visit from Mr. Hammond {our writer of our church history book.} Good to see him again. He’s looking for old youth programs or athletic programs of the past. If you have information to share, it’s time to do it.

Thanks to everyone that attended, each one that fixed food and especially all the happy faces. Hope to continue our meetings in the New Year, starting with our first meeting on Tuesday, January 10, 2023 at 11:00 AM in the Family Life Center.

God bless you.

Our Children’s Christmas Play 2022

Thank you to all who had a part! Everyone did a GREAT job!!

AWANA NEWS...Thank you so much for helping us carry the fire of faith to the next generation!

It has been encouraging to hear from churches experiencing growth in their Awana Club this year. How exciting it is to be able to disciple more children with the word of God. We see God's hand of blessing with changed lives against all odds as churches reach more and more children with the gospel.

Impact Stories It was a pleasure to visit Bryan Gilbert at Fletcher First Baptist Church this year. During their 20th-year celebration, I enjoyed an ice cream sundae with the children. It was terrific to see Awana's impact on their children's ministry. This year, five former Awana clubbers, who have completed Cubbies through Journey, are serving in various roles in the club and continuing to make disciples in their church and surrounding communities.

Providence Baptist Church in Waxhaw started an Awana Club this year. Jeannie Robbins, the Awana Ministry Director, and her husband Chris have been involved in Awana at other churches and are excited to have the opportunity to disciple the children at Providence Baptist with Awana.

Ministry & Equipping Highlights During August, I had an opportunity to speak at five Connect Dinners. David Roach also spoke at the dinner at Liberty Baptist Church. We attended a post-ABO meeting at Pleasant Hills Baptist in Morganton and one at Providence Baptist Church in Waxhaw. Seeing their excitement and anticipation of making disciples through the power of the Gospel and the eternal truth of God's Word was encouraging. Six new churches in our area of ministry are starting Awana this year. These new clubs will be reaching over 350 more kids!

Family Update Our grandson Jaxson was baptized in August. His father, Jeremy, is a new pastor, and his son was the first baptism he performed.

The Fall Festival at Philadelphia Baptist Church was well attended. I enjoyed handing out candy and helping with games. It was such a blessing that all of my grandchildren could attend.

Prayer Requests For Trinity of Fairview Baptist Church as they adjust to staff changes in their Children's ministry. Our granddaughter Savannah broke her ankle and graduated with an ankle brace instead of a big boot. Also, please continue to pray for my granddaughter Kelsi; she was diagnosed with juvenile Diabetes this year. She hopes to receive her insulin pump soon.

Ministry Goals Provide encouragement and solutions to churches who are navigating through ministry challenges.

Reach out to churches that do not currently use the Awana ministry to talk to them about child discipleship. Continue meeting with people interested in becoming financial ministry partners so I can someday become fully funded. Partner with us in Reaching More Children. missionary.awana.org/kathy-brock
