

Dear Pastor Caroll and Church family,

Thank you for the support you have given to each member of J's family. The beautiful service, the many, many prayers, and counseling. Each part an integral part to name a few: the sermon, music, food for the physical and spiritual body, the right-hand of fellowship to get us through these saddest days.

The Bereavement Committee is made of Genuine, Caring, Loving Christians that were so very thoughtful and meaningful in every way.

It is beautiful to see each being a willing vessel of God to allow him to pour out His love so that he can also physically touch the human body to guide us through this deep, dark valley.

Thank you. Love, Cathy Ashcraft Nicholson

Annie Armstrong
(1850-1938)

Annie was born in Baltimore at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet, her devotion to Christ led her to a life of service and leadership. She organized women to pray, to give and to meet the needs around them. She challenged pastors and churches to action and rallied vital support for missionaries. Ultimately, Annie was recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires millions today.
